	Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12. 5.12 We believe that God has ordained marriage as a heterosexual relationship between a natural chromosomal man and a natural chromosomal woman. Genesis 2:22-24; Mark 10:6-9.
6.	PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE TVBC upholds the following principles and practice as matters of truth, testimony and good order: 6.1 The Direct Lordship of Christ over every believer and over the local church. By this we understand that Christ exercises His authority over the believer and the local Church directly, without delegating it to another. 1 Cor 11:3; Eph 1:22; 4:15; 4:23, Acts 10:36, Rev 17:14; 19:16; 1 Tim 6:15; Rev 1:5. 6.2 The Church as the whole company of those who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ and regenerated by the Holy Spirit. The local church, being a manifestation of the universal church, is a community of believers in a particular place where the Word of God is preached and observed. It is fully autonomous and remains so notwithstanding responsibilities it may accept by voluntary association. Matt 16:18; Acts 9:31; 11:26; 13:1; 14:23; 14:27; 1 Cor 1:2; 3:16; 12:27. 6.3 Believer's Baptism as an act of obedience to our Lord Jesus Christ and a sign of personal repentance, faith and regeneration; it consists of the immersion in water into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Matt 28:19; 3:6; 3:13; Mar 16:16; Acts 2:38; 2:41; Luke 3:3; 1 Cor 12:13; Eph 4:5; Acts 10:48; 8:12. 6.3.1 Persons seeking believer's baptism shall be encouraged in this desire and receive proper teaching in accordance with Scripture. Acts 2:38-39; 16:31-34; Romans 6:3-4 and 1 Peter 3:21-22. 6.3.2 This teaching and the ministration of baptism, shall, for the sake of good order in TVBC, ordinarily be carried out by the Pastor/Elders or by a person to whom he delegates these duties. 6.3.3 The ministration of baptism by any other believer is permissible provided that the Pastor/Elders and TVBC are given acceptable reasons for the departure from the ordinary procedure specified above. 6.3.4 Whenever possible, reasonable notice of the intention to baptize – whether by the Pastor or some other believer – shall be given to the members of TVBC to enable them to encourage the candidates, hold them up in prayer and to be present to witness their act of commitment. 6.4 The Congregational Principle, namely that each member has the privilege and responsibility to use his/her gifts and abilities to participate fully in the life of the Church. We recognise that God gifts His Church with Overseers (who are called Pastors or Elders), whose primary function is to lead in a spirit of servanthood, to equip and provide spiritual oversight, and Deacons whose primary function is to facilitate the smooth functioning of the Church. This principle further recognises that each congregational member should participate in the appointment of the congregation's leaders, and that constituted congregational meetings, subject to the direct Lordship of Christ and the authority of Scripture, is the highest court of authority for the local Congregation. Acts 15:22; 20:28; 1 Cor 12:4 -31; Eph 4:12. 6.5 The Priesthood of All Believers, by which we understand that each Christian has direct access to God through Christ our High Priest, and shares with Him in His work of reconciliation. This involves intercession, worship, faithful service and bearing witness to Jesus Christ, even to the end of the earth.

	1 Pet 2:5; 2:9; Heb 7:11. 6.6 The principle of Religious Liberty, namely that no individual should be coerced either by the State or by any secular, ecclesiastical or religious group in matters of faith. The right of private conscience is to be respected. For each believer this means the right to interpret the Scriptures responsibly and to act in the light of his/her conscience. 6.7 The principle of Separation of Church and State in that, in the providence of God, the two differ in their respective natures and functions. The Church is not to be identified with the State nor is it, in its faith or practice, to be directed or controlled by the State. The State is responsible for administering justice, ensuring an orderly community, and promoting the welfare of its citizens. The Church is responsible for preaching the Gospel and for demonstrating and making known God's will and care for all mankind.
7.	CONGREGATIONAL MEMBERSHIP The membership of TVBC shall comprise those persons who: 7.1 are designated 'member' on the TVBC Register at the time of adoption of this amendment of the Constitution; 7.2 subsequently apply for membership as in 8 below and are accepted into membership of TVBC; and 7.3 have not forfeited their membership under this Constitution.
8.	APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP Application for membership shall be made by completing a prescribed form wherein the applicant, declares his or her: [see clause 15.6].* 8.1 acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ as personal Saviour and acknowledgement of Him as the divine Son of God John 1:12; Acts 13:38-39 and Romans 3:24. 8.2 belief in baptism by immersion as a public act of obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ and, if not already so baptised, be willing to go through the waters of baptism before entering into membership, Acts 2:38 & 41, Acts 8:36-38; 16:30-40 and Romans 6:3-5. 8.3 acceptance of this Constitution, specifically recognising the grievance and dispute mechanisms set forth in clause 12 of this Constitution and the final authority of 1 Corinthians 6.
9.	ACCEPTANCE INTO MEMBERSHIP 9.1 The completed application form shall be handed to the TVBC administration and be dated and filed on record. 9.2 The Eldership shall appoint two members of the Church Council to interview the applicant and report back to the next Church Council meeting. 9.3 The Eldership will bring a recommendation of suitable applicants before TVBC via email and/or via the church Notice Board, at least two weeks prior to the next members meeting. 9.4 If any person wishes to raise an objection to the admission or denial of an applicant to membership, he or she shall timeously convey to the Eldership, privately and confidentially, the grounds for his or her objection. 9.5 In such a case the Eldership shall not be obliged to reveal the details of their enquiries, but shall recommend to the Church Council a course of action in the matter supported by their reasons, which shall be in accordance with Scriptures. 9.6 If no objections are raised, the application shall be placed before a constituted Members Meeting for acceptance.

	9.7 Acceptance will be by majority vote of the members present. 9.8 The accepted applicant will be welcomed into membership at the next communion service.
10.	RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONGREGATIONAL MEMBERSHIP 10.1 Congregational members are expected to: • pray, • love one another, • study God’s Word, • attend services and other weekly meetings regularly, • be a witness for Christ, • engage in Christian service according to their spiritual gifting, • support TVBC financially, • make disciples and • be disciplined. 10.2 Congregational members are expected to attend general business and special general meetings. 10.3 Congregational membership may be suspended or cease under circumstances contemplated in clause 11 of this Constitution or may be surrendered by formal resignation, by departure to another place of residence (from which it is not reasonably possible to participate in the fellowship of TVBC), or by transfer to another congregation.
11.	DISCIPLINE OF CONGREGATIONAL MEMBERS 11.1 If any member is absent from services of TVBC and/or neglects to comply with the responsibilities of membership for a prolonged period without good reason, the Eldership shall make enquiry and should no satisfactory response result, the Eldership may submit a recommendation to a General Meeting that the individual in question be suspended from ministry/fellowship, suspended from membership or removed from membership. 11.2 In the unhappy event that any allegation of unworthy conduct or erroneous belief against any congregational member occurs, the Eldership shall privately raise the matter with the member/s concerned in the spirit of Matthew 18 verses 15 to 20, invite a response and after careful enquiry, prayer and consideration, suggest a course of appropriate action to the next General Meeting. 11.3 The suspension or expulsion of any member shall be resorted to only if all reasonable efforts at restoration prove unsuccessful. The affected member/s shall be entitled to make representations to the General Meeting considering an appropriate sanction. 11.4 In all matters of discipline, after sincere expression of repentance, fellowship and membership will be restored through reapplication following the process of clause 9.
12.	RESOLUTION OF DIFFERENCES/AREAS OF CONCERN Subject to the over-riding principles set out in Matthew 18 and 1 Corinthians 6, members of TVBC irrevocably forego their right to bring their disputes among themselves for adjudication before a secular court and instead commit themselves to seek resolution of their grievances and disputes through the following Christian avenues: 12.1 In the unhappy event of serious disputation or anxious concern as between any member or members, congregational leader or leadership, which undermines effective ministry or unity or threatens to do so, it shall be the right and privilege of the Pastor or any four members of the Church Council or of any twelve congregation members actively to seek resolution either through facilitation or, failing success by this means, through Christian arbitration. A disputing party may: 12.1.1 call for a special meeting of the Church Council with a view to resolving the differences. They shall invite three born again believers of good standing within the Baptist Union, who are not members of TVBC, nominated by the Executive of the Western Cape Baptist Network, hereinafter referred to as the WCBN, to be present at such a meeting. One of these people shall be nominated to serve as Chairman of the meeting or meetings. 12.1.1.1 It shall be the obligation of the disputants and of the church membership as a whole to afford the TVBC Church Council and the three WCBN representatives when so invoked, every reasonable opportunity to assist in bringing about a biblically based, God-honouring solution. The WCBN representatives may, if they so elect, submit a written report with appropriate recommendations. 2.1.1.2 In the unlikely event of these deliberations still not resulting in any satisfactory resolution of the differences or the areas of concern, then the WCBN representatives shall recommend to the Area Co-ordinator that an independent Christian mediator be appointed to lead disputing parties through a conflict resolution process as in clause 12.1.2 below. Or 12.1.2 request the Area Co-ordinator of the WCBN to recommend an independent Christian mediator to lead the congregation through a conflict resolution process. 12.1.2.1 During this process, which will involve a number of meetings and interviews, it shall be the obligation of all members of TVBC to participate in whatever way may be required of them in order that a satisfactory biblically based, God-honouring resolution of differences or areas of concern may be achieved. 12.1.2.2. TVBC shall endeavour where and if possible to recompense the person appointed by the Area Co-ordinator for his/her services and travel. 12.1.3 pursue determination of the dispute by arbitration by an accomplished Christian arbitrator nominated by the Christian Lawyers' Association if, and only if, no resolution acceptable to both sides has been achieved after diligent, exhaustive participation in the process set out in clauses 12.1.1/12.1.2 above. Such arbitration shall take place with no more than the formalities necessary for fairness and good order, and the arbitration decision shall be final and binding. 12.1.4 The disputing parties shall share the costs of arbitration equitably.

13.	TVBC MEMBERSHIP REGISTER 13.1 All additions to and deletions from the membership of TVBC shall be recorded in a Membership Register which shall be up-dated at not less than quarterly intervals and every member of TVBC shall be entitled, on request, to a copy thereof. 13.2 The Membership Register may, in addition to the names of all members, contain their addresses and telephone numbers and such other useful and relevant information that is reasonably required to facilitate the pastoral and administrative work of TVBC but it shall not contain any private or confidential information. 13.3 Any member in good standing who desires to join another congregation, shall on request be given a letter of introduction from the Eldership.
